THE undersigned would respectfully solicit the attention of dealers in and consumers of Coal in Milwaukee to our Card, as above. The Bolivar Coal is unquestionably superior to any other mined in Ohio, for Grate, Blacksmithing, Machinery, or Domestic purposes; and for Steam purposes, is superior to any except Briar Hill. It is peculiarly well adapted to Shipping, as its extreme hardness renders it capable of bearing any amount of handling, without waste. It can be afforded considerably cheaper than Brier Hill, and for most purposes, is better.
It is our wish to introduce the article, and we respectfully solicit orders, confident that a trial is only necessary to convince any of the truth of the above assertion.

The proprietors of the Eckford Line would particularly call the attention of the Merchants of Wisconsin, Illinois, and other Western and Southwestern States to the superior facilities of their line for transportation to, and from, the ports on the Upper Lakes. The above line of Steamboats come direct to our Dock at Buffalo, and all goods shipped by this line for the Upper Lakes will be shipped "unless otherwise ordered or contracted," by Steamboats, (not Propellers) with but one, or possibly two exceptions. The Eckford is the only Line not interested in, or committed to, a Propeller Upper Lake Line; and in endeavoring to sustain a line of Steamboats on that route, the Proprietors hope to receive the support and patronage of the Merchants of the Western States, when interest demands the continuance of a line of such a class of Boats. HURRAH FOR SCOTT!

TUNE—A Fine Old Gentleman.

A good new song to a good old tune, spun from a rustic pate,
Of a true old Yankee General, and a real old first-rate,
Who always was, and always shall be numbered with the great,
Who shortly will be called upon to fill the Chair of State.
Hurrah for Scott, our noble Scott, the people's candidate!

When danger on our Western front, like darkest cloud arose,
He like a guardian angel stood, and battled with our foes;
With skill and equal bravery he dealt them heavy blows;
Our gallant Scott's true patriot heart the whole creation knows;
Then who dare stand before the world, and Winfield Scott oppose?

Whene'er our country's voice has called, our noble Scott has stood,
And battled sternly with the foe, as every patriot should—
His constant mind and wish has been to seek his country's good,
And he shall be our President in spite of foemen rude.
Hurrah for Scott! we'll show to him a Nation's gratitude.

It will not do, my Loco boys, to talk of Pierce and King,
For President we want a MAN, we do not want a THING;
In spite of all the slanders that your dirty mouths can bring,
For Scott and Willie Graham we will make the welkin ring—
We'll send them both to Washington about the coming Spring.

Then, boys, three cheers we'll give the brave who for our land has fought;
He ever has his country served, and we'll forget it not;
For services so great as his can never be forgot—
His fame stands fair before the world—without a single blot;
Then boys three cheers, three hearty cheers for gallant Winfield Scott!

BLEAK HOUSE.

BY

CHARLES DICKENS.

CHAPTER XVI.—TOM-ALL-ALONE'S.

My Lady Dedlock is restless, very restless.—The astonished fashionable intelligence hardly knows where to have her. To-day, she is at Chesney Wold; yesterday she was at her house in town; to-morrow, she may be abroad, for any thing the fashionable intelligence can with confidence predict. Even Sir Leicester's gallantry has some trouble to keep pace with her. It would have more, but that his other faithful ally, for better and for worse—the gout—darts into the old oak bed-chamber at Chesney Wold, and grips him by both legs.

Sir Leicester receives the gout as a troublesome demon, but still a demon of the patrician order. All the Dedlocks, in the direct male line, through a course of time during and beyond which the memory of man goeth not to the contrary, have had the gout. It can be proved, sir. Other men's fathers may have died of the rheumatism, or may have taken base contagion from the tainted blood of the sick vulgar; but, the Dedlock family have communicated something exclusive, even to the leveling process of dying, by dying of their own family gout. It has come down, through the illustrious line, like the plate, or the pictures, or the place in Lincolnshire. It is among their dignities. Sir Leicester is, perhaps, not wholly without an impression, though he has never resolved it into words, that the angel of death in the discharge of his necessary duties may observe to the shades of the aristocracy, "My lords and gentlemen, I have the honor to present to you another Dedlock certified to have arrived per the family gout."

Hence, Sir Leicester yields up his family legs to the family disorder, as if he held his name and fortune on that feudal tenure. He feels, that for a Dedlock to be laid upon his back and spasmodically twitched and stabbed in his extremities, is a liberty taken somewhere; but, he thinks, "We have all yielded to this; it belongs to us; it has, for some hundreds of years, been understood that we are not to make the vaults in the park interesting on more ignoble terms; and I submit myself to the compromise."

And a goodly show he makes, lying in a flush of crimson and gold, in the midst of the great drawing-room, before his favorite picture of my Lady, with broad stripes of sunlight shining in, down the long perspective, through the long line of windows, and alternating with soft reliefs of shadow. Outside, the stately oaks, rooted for ages in the green ground which has never known ploughshare, but was still a Chase when Kings rode to battle with sword and shield, and rode a-hunting with bow and arrow, bear witness to his greatness. Inside, his forefathers, looking on him from the walls, say, "Each of us was a passing reality here and left this colored shadow of himself, and remembrance as dreamy as the distant voices of the rooks now lulling you to rest;" and bear their testimony to his greatness too.—And he is very great, this day. And woe to Boythorn, or other daring wight, who shall presumptuously contest an inch with him!

My Lady is at present represented, near Sir Leicester, by her portrait. She has flitted away to town, with no intention of remaining there, and will soon flit hither again, to the confusion of the fashionable intelligence. The house in town is not prepared for her reception. It is muffled and dreary. Only one Mercury in powder, gapes disconsolate at the hall-window; and he mentioned last night to another Mercury of his acquaintance, also accustomed to good society, that if that sort of thing was to last—which it couldn't, for a man of his spirits couldn't bear it, and a man of his figure couldn't be expected to bear it—there would be no resource for him, upon his honor, but to cut his throat!

What connection can there be, between the place in Lincolnshire, the house in town, and the whereabout of Jo, the outlaw with the broom, who had that distant ray of light upon him when he swept the church-yard-step? What connection can there have been between many people in the innumerable histories of this world, who, from opposite sides of great gulfs, have, nevertheless, been very curiously brought together!

Jo sweeps his crossing all day long, unconscious of the link, if any link there be. He sums up his mental condition, when asked a question, by replying that he "don't no nothink." He knows that it's hard to keep the mud off the crossing in dirty weather, and harder still to live by doing it. Nobody taught him, even that much; he found it out.

Jo lives—that is to say, Jo has not yet died—in a ruinous place, known to the like of him by the name of Tom-all-alone's. It is a black, dilapidated street, avoided by all decent people; where the crazy houses were seized upon, when their decay was far advanced, by some bold vagrants, who, after establishing their own possession, took to letting them out in lodgings. Now, these tumbling tenements contain, by night, a swarm of misery. As, on the ruined human wretch, vermin parasites appear, so these ruined shelters have bred a crowd of foul existence that crawls in and out of gaps in walls and boards; and coils itself to sleep, in maggot numbers, where the rain drips in; and comes and goes, fetching and carrying fever, and sowing more evil in its every footprint than Lord Coodle, and Sir Thomas Doodle, and the Duke of Foodle, and all the fine gentlemen in office down to Zoodle, shall set right in five hundred years—though born expressly to do it.

Twice, lately, there has been a crash and a cloud of dust, like the springing of a mine, in Tom-all-alone's; and each time, a house has fallen. These accidents have made a paragraph in the newspapers, and have filled a bed or two in the nearest hospital. The gaps remain, and there are not unpopular lodgings among the rubbish. As several more houses are nearly ready to go, the next crash in Tom-all-alone's may be expected to be a good one.

This desirable property is in Chancery, of course. It would be an insult to the discernment of any man with half an eye, to tell him so.—Whether "Tom" is the popular representative of the original plaintiff or defendant in Jarndyce and Jarndyce; or, whether Tom lived here when the suit had laid the street waste all alone, until other settlers came to join him; or, whether the traditional title is a comprehensive name for a retreat cut off from honest company and put out of the pale of hope; perhaps nobody knows. Certainly Jo don't know.

"For I don't," says Jo, "I don't know nothink."

It must be a strange state to be like Jo! To shuffle through the streets, unfamiliar with the shapes, and in utter darkness as to the meaning, of those mysterious symbols, so abundant over the shops, and at the corners of streets, and on the doors and in the windows! To see people read, and to see people write, and to see the postmen deliver letters, and not to have the least idea of all that language—to be, to every scrap of it, stone blind and dumb! It must be very puzzling to see the good company going to the churches on Sundays, with the books in their hands, and to think (for perhaps Jo does think, at odd times) what does it all mean, and if it means any thing to any body, how comes it that it means nothing to me? To be hustled, and jostled, and moved on; and really to feel that it would appear to be perfectly true that I have no business, here, to there, or any where; and, yet to be perplexed by the consideration that I am here somehow, too, and every body overlooked me until I became the creature that I am! It must be a strange state, not merely to be told that I am scarcely human (as in the case of my offering myself for a witness), but to feel it of my own knowledge all my life! To see the horses, dogs, and cattle, go by me, and to know that in ignorance I belong to them, and not to the superior beings in my shape, whose delicacy I offend! Jo's ideas of a Criminal Trial, or a Judge, or a Bishop, or a Government, or that inestimable jewel to him (if he only knew it) the constitution, should be strange!—His whole material and immaterial life is wonderfully strange; his death, the strangest thing of all.

Jo comes out of Tom-all-alone's, meeting the tardy morning which is always late in getting down there, and munches his dirty-brown bread as he comes along. His way lying through rich streets, and the houses not yet being open, he sat down to breakfast on the door step of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign parts. He gives it a brush when he has finished, as an acknowledgement of the accommodation. He admires the beauty of the edifice, and wonders what it is for. He has no idea, poor wretch, of the spiritual wants of a coral reef in the Pacific, or what it costs to look up the precious souls among the bananas and bread-fruit.

He goes to his crossing and begins to lay it out for the day. The day opens; the great tee-totum is set up for another whirl; all that unaccountable reality of life which has been suspended for a few hours, recommences. Jo, and the other humane animals, get on in the unintelligible mess as they can. It is market day. The blinded oxen, over-goaded, over driven, never guided, run into wrong places and are beaten out; and plunge red-eyed and foaming, at stone-walls; and often sorely hurt the innocent, and often sorely hurt themselves. Very like Joe and his order; very, very like.

A band of music comes, and plays. Jo listens to it. So does a dog—a drover's dog, waiting for his master outside a butcher's shop, and evidently thinking about those sheep he has had upon his mind for some hours, and is happily rid of. He seems perplexed respecting three or four; can't remember where he left them; looks up and down the street, as half expecting to see them astray; suddenly pricks up his ears and remembers all about it. A thoroughly vagabond dog, accustomed to low company and public houses; a terrific dog to sheep; ready at a whistle to scamper over their backs, and tear out mouthfuls of their wool; but an educated, improved, developed dog, who has been taught his duties and knows how to discharge them. He and Joe listen to the music, probably with much the same amount of animal satisfaction; likewise, as to awakened association aspiration or regret, melancholy or joyful reference to things beyond the senses, they are probably upon a par. But, otherwise, how far above the humane listener is the brute!

Turn the dog's descendants wild, like Jo, and in a very few years they will so degenerate that they will lose even their bark—but not their bite.

The day changes as it wears itself away, and becomes dark and drizzly. Jo fights it out, at his crossing, among the mud and wheels, the horses, whips, and umbrellas, and gets but a scanty sum to pay for the unsavory shelter of Tom-all-alone's. Twilight comes on; gas begins to start up in the shops; the lamplighter, with his ladder, runs along the margin of the pavement. A wretched evening is beginning to close in.

In his chambers, Mr. Tulkinghorn sits meditating an application to the nearest magistrate to-morrow morning for a warrant. Gridley, a disappointed suitor, has been here to-day, and has been alarming. We are not to be put in bodily fear, and that ill-conditioned fellow shall be held to bail again. From the ceiling, foreshortened allegory in the person of one impossible Roman upside down, points with the arm of Samson (out of joint, and an odd one) obtrusively towards the window. Why should Mr. Tulkinghorn, for such no-reason, look out of window. Is the hand not always pointing there? So he does not look out of window.

And if he did, what would it be to see a woman going by? There are women enough in the world, Mr. Tulkinghorn thinks—too many; they are at the bottom of all that goes wrong in it, though, for the matter of that, they create business for lawyers. What would it be to see a woman going by, even though she were going secretly? They are all secret. Mr. Tulkinghorn knows that, very well.

But they are not all like the woman who now leaves him and his house behind; between whose plain dress, and her refined manner, there is something exceedingly inconsistent. She should be an upper servant by her attire, yet, in her air and step, though both are hurried and assumed—as far as she can assume in the muddy streets, which she treads with an unaccustomed foot—she is a lady. Her face is veiled, and still she sufficiently betrays herself to make more than one of those who pass her look round sharply.

She never turns her head. Lady or servant, she has a purpose in her, and can follow it. She never turns her head, until she comes to the crossing where Jo plies with his broom. He crosses with her, and begs. Still, she does not turn her head until she has landed on the other side. Then, she slightly beckons to him, and says, "Come here!"

Jo follows her, a pace or two, into a quiet court.

"Are you the boy I have read of in the papers?" she asks behind her veil.

"I dont know," says Jo staring moodily at the veil, "nothing about no papers. I don't know nothink about nothink at all."

"Were you examined at an inquest?"

"I dont know nothink about no—where I was took by the beadle, do you mean?" says Jo.—"Was the boy's name at the Inkwhich, Jo?"

"Yes."

"That's me!" says Jo.

"Come farther up."

"You mean about the man?" says Jo, following. "Him as wos dead?"

"Hush! Speak in a whisper! Yes. Did he look when he was living so very ill and poor?"

"O jist!" says Jo.

"Did he look like—not like you?" says the woman, with abhorrence.

"Not so bad as me," says Jo. "I'm a reg'lar one, I am! You didn't know him, did you?"

"How dare you ask me if I knew him?"

"No offence my lady," says Jo, with much humility; for even he has got at the suspicion of her being a lady."

"I am not a lady. I am a servant."

"You are a jolly servant!" says Jo, without the least idea of saying anything offensive; merely as a tribute of admiration.

"Listen and be silent. Don't talk to me, and stand farther from me! Can you show me all those places that were spoken of in the account I read? The place he wrote for, the place he died at, the place where you were taken to, and the place where he was buried? Do you know the place where he was buried?"

Jo answers with a nod; having also nodded as each other place was mentioned.

"Go before, and show me all those dreadful places. Stop opposite to each, and don't speak to me unless I speak to you. Don't look back.—Do what I want, and I will pay you well."

Jo attends closely while the words are being spoken; tells them off on his broom-handle, finding them rather hard; pauses to consider their meaning; considers it satisfactory, and nods his ragged head.

"I am fly," says Jo. "But fen larks, you know! Stow hooking it!"

"What does the horrible creature mean?" exclaims the servant, recoiling from him.

"Stow cutting away, you know!" says Jo.

"I don't understand you. Go on before! I will give you more money than you ever had in your life."

Jo screws up his mouth into a whistle, gives his ragged head a rub, takes his broom under his arm and leads the way; passing deftly with his bare feet over the hard stones, and through the mud and mire.

Cook's Court. Jo stops. A pause.

"Who lives here?"

"Him wot give him his writing, and give me half a bull," says Jo, in a whisper, without looking over his shoulder.

"Go on to the next."

Krook's house. Jo stops again. A longer pause.

"Who lives here?"

"He lived here," Jo answers as before.

After a silence, he is asked, "In which room?"

"In the back room up there. You can see the winder from this corner. Up there! That's where I see him stritched out. This is the public ouse where I was took to."

"Go on to the next!"

It is a longer walk to the next; but Jo, relieved of his first suspicions, sticks to the terms imposed upon him, and does not look round. By many devious ways, reeking with offence of many kinds, they come to the little tunnel of a court, and to the gas-lamp (lighter now) and to the iron gate.

"He was put there," says Jo, holding to the bars and looking in.

"Where? O, what a scene of horror!"

"There!" says Jo, pointing. "Over yinder. Among them piles of bones, and close to that there kitchen winder! They put him wery nigh the top. They was obliged to stamp upon it to git it in. I could unkiver it for you with my broom, if the gate was open. That's why they locks it, I s'pose," giving it a shake. "It's always locked. Look at the rat!" cries Jo, excited. "Hi! Look! There he goes! Ho! into the ground!"

The servant shrinks into a corner—into a corner of that hideous archway, with its deadly stains contaminating her dress; and putting out her two hands, and passionately telling him to keep away from her, for he is loathsome to her, so remains for some moments. Jo stands staring, and is still staring when she recovers herself.

"Is this place of abomination, consecrated ground?"

"I dont know nothink of consequential ground," says Jo, still staring.

"Is it blessed?"

"Which?" says Jo, in the last degree amazed.

"Is it blessed?"

"I'm blest if I know," says Jo, staring more than ever; "but I shouldn't think it warn't.—Blest?" repeats Jo, something troubled in his mind. "It an't done it much good if it is.—Blest? I should think it was t'othered myself. But I don't know nothink?"

The servant takes as little heed of what he says, as she seems to take of what she has said herself. She draws off her glove, to get some money from her purse. Jo silently notices how white and small her hand is, and what a jolly servant she must be to wear such sparkling rings.

She drops a piece of money in his hand, without touching it, and shuddering as their hands approach. "Now, she adds, "show me the spot again!"

Joe thrusts the handle of his broom between the bars of the gate, and with his utmost power of elaboration, points it out. At length, looking aside to see if he has made himself intelligible, he finds that he is alone.

His first proceeding is, to hold the piece of money to the gaslight, and to be overpowered at finding that it is yellow—gold. His next, is, to to give it a one-sided bite at the edge, as a test of its quality. His next, to put it in his mouth for safety, and to sweep the step and passage with great care. His job done, he steps off for Tom-all-alone's; stopping in the light of innumerable gas-lamps to produce the piece of gold, and give another one-sided bite, as a re-assurance of its being genuine.

The Mercury in powder is in no want of society to-night, for my Lady goes to a grand dinner and three or four balls. Sir Leicester is fidgety, down at Chesney Wold, with no better company than the gout; he complains to Rouncewell that the rain makes such a monotonous pattering on the terrace, that he can't read the paper, even by the fireside in his own snug dressing room.

"Sir Leicester would have done better to try the other side of the house, my dear," says Mrs. Rouncewell to Rosa. "His dressing-room is on my Lady's side. And in all these years I never heard the step upon the Ghost's Walk, more distinct than it is to-night!"

FORE-WARNED, FORE-ARMED.

Men of the West! Be on your Guard!

The "Democracy" of Virginia claims to be the model democracy of the Union. The standard of political orthodoxy established by that State is of universal and unquestioned authority among the party leaders. The delegates from that State, in the Baltimore Loco Foco Convention, were the ones to lead off in the nomination of Gen. PIERCE. To them belongs, in great measure the credit of the discovery that this son of New Hampshire was worthy to sit in the Chair of WASHINGTON. And, as the canvass progresses the grounds upon which Virginia's preference for Mr. PIERCE was founded, begin to appear. The Richmond Examiner of the 3rd instant, in a labored article commending Mr. PIERCE to the democracy of Virginia, thus discourses:—

"The more severe the test, the higher rises our estimate of Franklin Pierce. Until we examined his Congressional record, we did not believe that any such politician had ever lived north of the Potomac. In Congress, he was as invariably true to Southern Rights as Mr. Calhoun himself; and every concatenation of circumstances in which he has since been placed makes more evident his unswerving sincerity to his convictions. Every assault upon him only renders the truth more plain."

It would be quite a triumph for the South, and especially for Virginia, to elect a President who, during his brief Congressional career, was chiefly distinguished by being "as invariably true to Southern Rights as Mr. CALHOUN himself," and who gave repeated and unhesitating proofs of his fealty, by voting almost "invariably" against the Right of Petition. It is no marvel that Virginia "Democracy" should "cotton" to Mr. Pierce.

But he has other charms F. F. V's. They not only count with entire confidence upon his "invariable" devotion to Southern Rights, but they anticipate with equal certainty his uncompromising hostility to Western Interests. Virginia, with all her hungering after "the spoils" and her large annual demand for Government expenditures within her own borders, is bitterly opposed to all appropriations for Internal Improvements, and has just given a fresh illustration of her dog-in-the manger policy by voting in solid phalanx against the River and Harbor Bill. And a part of the work which Virginia expects Mr. PIERCE to do, is to use the Veto power to stop the passage of any more of these bills. Hear the Examiner again:

"The River and Harbor Bill has passed the House of Representatives. It appropriates the sum of $1,439 390, to the improvement of rivers and bays in every quarter of the United States; and gives $45,000 to the removal of the obstructions in the James and Appomattox Rivers.

"This bribe, however, does not reconcile us, and ought not to reconcile any Virginian, to this audacious bill. It is a perfect violation of the Constitution. The Constitution gives no warrant for these appropriations. It seems to be a very nice thing to get our rivers cleaned out at the expense of the General Government, but we had better deny ourselves many such conveniences than to overstep the bounds of the Constitution. When violated in one way for expediency, it may be violated in another. It becomes mere paper.—We lose all the security which we enjoy while living under a fixed and known organic law, and plunge into a sea of trouble and uncertainty. We say again, that it is better to do without many little conveniences like these, than to give up the Constitution.

"The bill has been so framed as to bribe every section. Therefore, it has passed the House, and therefore it will pass the Senate. Mr. Fillmore will approve it, for it is the settled policy of his party to disregard the Constitution whenever expediency invites it. But we have one consolation. This bill is the first of the sort that has been passed for a long time, and it will be the last for four years at least. FRANKLIN PIERCE will come into power on the 4th of next March. A strict construction and respect for the constitution is the Medean law of the Democratic party; and Mr. Pierce, besides that general reason, is bound by every idea of consistency, and by every fact of his past career, to veto every bill like this. He will do it, if they are presented to him, JUST SO SURELY AS THERE IS A SUN IN THE SKY."

Behold the entertainment to which the Men of the West are invited! Gen. PIERCE, if elected President, will veto every River and Harbor bill as "surely as there is a sun in the sky!" Such is the announcement of the party oracle, and none can doubt its truth. Mr. PIERCE is indeed "bound by every idea of consistency, and by every fact of his past career" to veto all such bills. His own principles are opposed to them. His party platform is against them. His votes, as a Member of Congress, are recorded in opposition to them. And the two Democratic Representatives from his own New Hampshire, Messrs. PEASLEE and HIBBARD, who may fairly be supposed to reflect Mr. PIERCE's present sentiments, voted against the River and Harbor Bill now pending in the Senate! Are not these facts conclusive? Is there reasonable ground for doubt as to Mr. PIERCE's position?—Shall these repeated warnings fall upon indifferent, or inattentive ears? MEN OF THE WEST!—Forewarned, is to be fore-armed! Let not your suffrages be cast for the enemies of your Rights and Interests!

THE SUNDAY QUESTION.

The Volksfreund of yesterday makes a brief paragraph from the Washington County Blade, endorsing the Sunday petition, the text for an angry diatribe against the signers of that petition, the Sentinel and the Rev. Mr. Ives. The article professes to be a fair and full statement of the question at issue, for the edification of the Blade, but it is, in fact, a false and garbled version of the whole affair. We shall briefly notice some of its most repulsive features and palpable falsehoods. The very first paragraph is a transparent and notorious fabrication. It is this:

> The petition has some 1400 names appended to it, mostly names of women and minors, even infant schools having been ransacked by the wholesale collectors, and names appended without the consent of their owners.

The petition was most numerously and respectably signed. As we have published it and the names attached to it, at length, our readers can judge for themselves as to the truth of the Volksfreund's assertion.

Next, as to the motives which prompted this petition. The Volksfreund insists that they were wholly political, and this in the face of the fact, that the petitioners include men of all parties and persuasions, native as well as foreign-born, clergymen as well as laymen. The pretence is utterly absurd. If there has been any purpose, or thought of making political capital out of this question, it has been on the part of the Volksfreund and its backers; and if any is made, it will be because they are intent upon forcing such an issue upon us.

The Volksfreund in its special hatred of the Rev. Mr. Ives, assails him him a "Reverend columniator" and falsely accuses him of uttering gratuitous and wanton fabrications against "the German population of this city." It is an all-sufficient answer to this malicious assault that hundreds of our German population, we rejoice to say, signed the Sunday petition. Who believes that they would countenance or circulate unjust and undeserved "strictures" upon themselves?

But these onslaughts upon Mr. Ives, the Sunday petitioners and ourselves are but the trimmings to the Volksfreund's favorite dish, a justification and defence of the habitual desecration of the Sabbath. It presents the issue in this light:

> No feelings of those who would observe the Sunday as a sacred day, have been violated, as long as they were not wilfully disturbed in their rights to "worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own conscience." But the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin (Art. 1, Sec. 18,) declares as solemnly: "Nor shall any control of, or interference with the rights of conscience be permitted, or any preference be given by law to any religious establishments, or mode of worship." Upon the basis of this constitutional provision, citizens who do not believe in the religious observance of the first day, as established by some religious sects, feel themselves under no conscientious or legal obligation to observe it, and deem a law, prescribing such a mode of worship, as controling and interfering with the rights of conscience, and unconstitutional.

The true question is this:—Is a law prescribing the religious observance of the Sunday, in Wisconsin, constitutional? The opponents of the law are ready to test its validity before the highest tribunal of the country—that is all that Mr. Ives can reasonably ask.

And all that Mr. Ives or the community does ask is—that this law for the decent observance of the Sabbath shall be enforced. The Volksfreund denies the validity or constitutionality of the law.—It adopts, in this and in other particulars, the Platform of certain German Reformers at Richmond, Virginia, published in the Sentinel of January last. It is in favor of abolishing all laws for the observance of the Sabbath, and it taxes the Sentinel, the Rev. Mr. Ives and the fourteen hundred petitioners, with political motives, for upholding the law and asking for its enforcement. If the Volksfreund insists upon making this the shibboleth of party, be it so; but let it not charge the Sentinel with originating the attempt. We have no desire to mingle politics with religion. We have made no attempt to do so. But if the Volksfreund, in its desperation, chooses to drag this question into the political arena, we shall not shrink from the issue.

The Late Judicial Convention.

The Madison Democrat summons the party, throughout the State, to a united and unhesitating support of the ticket recently put forward at Madison, upon the ground that it was fairly nominated and has intrinsic claims to the popular suffrages. In urging these views, the Democrat says:

"There may be disaffection in other parts of the State—there always is immediately after conventions, where there are disappointed candidates—but there never was less ground for it than on the present occasion; every portion of the State was fully represented; the proceedings of the Convention were fairly and dispassionately conducted: it is not intimated that a single delegate misrepresented the wishes of his constituents; to say that unsuitable or incompetent men are presented would be an imputation upon the intelligence and integrity of the democracy of the State, &c.

At the risk of casting such an "imputation" upon the democracy of our State, we take it upon ourselves to say that the nominees of the Madison Convention are neither suitable, nor competent men for the Supreme Bench. And we are very confident that the "Democracy" themselves—not the leaders, but the masses—appreciate and admit this fact. As to the composition of the Convention, we are assured that several counties (Grant amongst others) were neither fully nor fairly represented; that many of the delegates did notoriously misrepresent the wishes of their constituents, and that the final result was brought about by means and appliances which would have been deemed discreditable even in the most reckless partisan caucus.

So far as the wishes of the party were expressed at all in the Convention they were decidedly in favor of Judge HUBBELL's nomination for Chief Justice; and the selection of one, at least, of the candidates for Associate Justice, was made in open disregard and defiance of public sentiment in this section of the State. To expect that the People will ratify such a nomination so made, is asking a little too much of human nature.

What Constitutes "Democracy."

This disputed question is authoritatively settled in the Madison Democrat of Saturday last. In noticing certain rumors of disaffection in the party ranks, growing out of the recent Judicial Convention, the Democrat utters the following edict:

Exceptions have been taken to the definition of the word Democrat as one who votes the Democratic ticket. Under our Government it is the only definition that will apply; the man that does not support the Democratic ticket, lends his influence against the principles of Democracy and is not therefore a consistent Democrat. He who professes to be a Democrat and does not support Democratic principles is a hypocrite and not to be trusted.

Such is the official declaration of the Madison Regency. A Democrat is "one who votes the Democratic ticket." No matter what his principles are, or what his practices, if he conforms to this particular test he is a true Democrat—if not, be his "professions" what they may, he is "not be trusted." The theory is a capital one for the leaders and wire-workers of party. Let them but succeed in establishing and enforcing this rule and they have the game in their own hands. The People will henceforth be relieved of all care or responsibility about elections, further than simply to "vote the ticket." The patriotic and painstaking gentlemen who manage the caucuses, pack conventions, and superintend the party machinery generally, will do all the rest.

GERMAN CAMPAIGN PAPER.—The first number of the "Stimme der Wahrheit," a German Campaign paper, devoted to the support of SCOTT and GRAHAM, was published yesterday. It is a handsomely printed sheet and full of interesting matter, original and selected. The editor, Mr. A. ROESLER has the ability, education and experience to make a valuable paper, and is full of zeal for the good cause. We heartily commend the "Stimme der Wahrheit" to the friends of WINFIELD SCOTT, throughout this State and Illinois, and we urge upon them the vital importance of taking speedy and effectual measures to secure for it a wide circulation. The terms for the Campaign are, single copies 75 cents, clubs of ten $6,00, of twenty five $12.00 and of fifty $20. Orders for the paper should be addressed to A. ROESLER, Sentinel Office, Milwaukee.

For the Sentinel.

Notice---To the Public.

Notice is hereby given, that Mr. Daniel Waite, who was appointed Agent, to travel at large, for the purpose of making collections for the relief of the M. E. Church, Reed street, Milwaukee, did comply with the requirements of said Church.

The undersigned was appointed Agent on the 7th day of March last, without any restrictions, but at a subsequent meeting of the Official Board held the last of July, it was agreed that I should give drafts on A. Mitchell, in Milwaukee, as often as I obtained a hundred dollars, made payable to the order of Osmond Bailey, in trust for the said Church: and also, before I should leave for the East, I was to leave thirty or thirty-five dollars of the money I had in my hands belonging to the Church. I deposited forty dollars in A. Mitchell's bank, on the 22d of July, before I left for the East. I made a mistake in the given name of Mr. Bailey, calling his name Oleesen instead of Osmond Bailey, which I should have done. I make these statements that the public may know the facts in the case.

Yours, respectfully,
DANIEL WAITE.

Democratic Testimony.

In 1814, when the news of the battle of Bridgewater or Lundy's Lane reached Albany, the proprietors of the Argus, which now abuses Gen'l Scott to the uttermost, hastened to their office, and dashed off the following "EXTRA":

Honor the Brave!—Battle of Bridgewater.
[Albany Argus Extra, Aug. 2—Night.]

"On the 25th ult., the army under the command of Maj. Gen. Brown, encamped above Chippewa, near the battle ground on the 5th. The 1st brigade under Brig. Gen. SCOTT moved past Chippewa, and halted at Bridgewater, a mile below Chippewa, in plain view of the Niagara Falls. Gen. SCOTT learnt that the enemy was approaching, and immediately gave him battle. The enemie's numerical force was much superior to Gen. Scott's: his line was far extended and he showed a disposition to flank; in order to counteract these views he was fought in detachments—HE WAS CHARGED IN COLUMN! GEN. SCOTT BEING AT THE HEAD OF HIS TROOPS IN ALMOST EVERY CHARGE! The action was continued, and the ground maintained for more than an hour before the reserve was successfully brought into action.

Brig. Gen. Scott was severely wounded by a grape shot in the shoulder, besides a severe bruise occasioned by a shell or cannon shot—having lost two horses killed.

It would be impossible to put the action of the 25th on paper. Considering the numbers engaged, THE HISTORY OF MODERN WARS WILL SCARCELY PRODUCE A PARALLEL. The admiration of this NATION will follow those who fought, those who bled, and those who fell—TO THEIR GRAVES: THEIR NAMES WILL BE JUSTLY ADDED TO THAT BRILLIANT CATALOGUE OF WORTHIES, THE HEROES OF THE REVOLUTION! AND THE BATTLE OF BRIDGEWATER WILL BE REMEMBERED, BY POSTERITY, WITH THE SAME SENSATIONS AS THOSE OF BUNKER HILL AND SARATOGA."

A MERITED COMPLIMENT.—The Committee of the New York Senate, appointed to examine the railroads of the State, recently passed over the Erie road, accompanied by numerous gents, among whom were G. W. Whistler, Supt. of the New Haven Railroad, Col. Schlatter, of the Ogdensburg R. R., and Mr. Doxtater, Supt. of the Rome and Cape Vincent R. R.

On their return to New York, a meeting was held, at which Hon. J. C. Wright, Controller of the state presided, and Mr. Whistler was Sec'y. The following resolution was reported and passed:

Resolved, That the thanks of the guests invited to accompany the Committee on Examination be tendered to Mr. Minor, the efficient, able and popular Superintendent of the New York and Erie Railroad and to the accompanying officers, for the kindness and attention shown to the guests, and their unremitted exertions to render the excursion, as it has been, altogether agreeable, and which, with the valuable information furnished by Mr. Post, the Chief Engineer, in his department, have enabled the guests to learn with gratification the great order, regularity and regard for the safety, comfort and pleasure to the traveller with which this road is conducted.

THE BANK LAW.—We are not yet prepared to enter upon the discussion of the Bank Law question, which is to be submitted this fall, but we hope the friends of Banking in Wisconsin, will bear in mind that they have work to do in the matter.

Meantime, here is a specimen of the sort of arguments which will be used against you. We find a couple of columns of such close reasoning in the Potosi Signal, a "regular democratic" paper, lately started in Grant county:

"We defy all the world and the rest of mankind" to point to any good result from banks, except the gratification of the avarice of some greedy broker, or money changer.

The mammoth bank of Illinois originated and matured a debt of sixteen millions, which will be paid about the same time that the national debt of England will, and that will be when Lake Michigan takes fire and burns dry: and this debt, and others like it, are to constitute the capital of the Wisconsin banks.

AID AND COMFORT.—It is very generally known that one Mr. (sometimes styled Rev. Mr.) Brownlow, publishes a paper in Tennessee, professedly Whig. It couldn't support Gen. Taylor, and it can't support Gen. Scott, being in this last respect solitary and alone among the whig presses of the State. In a late number of this paper, appears the following paragraph:

"We have been kindly and respectfully notified this week, by Mr. Webster, Secretary of State, that our paper is selected for publishing the Orders, Resolutions, and Laws passed during the first session of the XXXIId Congress; and also all Public Treaties entered into and ratified by the United States."

We have no comments to make.

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.—The exports of domestic produce from the port of New York for the month of July amounted to $4,955,542, while the imports reached $12,368,571, showing an excess of imports of $9,353,029— a brilliant statement of affairs truly.

How long would a business-man keep his head above water with a like comparative condition of outgoes and incomes?

In the same month we exported from N. York about 3,000,000 in specie to help pay over balance of debt, interest on loans, &c. Pay day will come some of these times!

WHERE THE MONEY GOES TO.—The following quantities of Railroad Iron have been imported during the periods designated:—

1850	70,000 tons.
1851	141,000 "
1852 (estimated)	175,000 "
	386,000 "

Probable cost, here, over nineteen millions of dollars. With a proper Tariff, every dollar of this money might have passed into the pockets of American Artizans and Farmers.—Alb. Eve. Jour.

MORE BOLTING.—Gen. Waddy Thompson the right bower of whiggery in South Carolina, has renounced Scott, and will go for Pierce and King. Whiggery in the Palmetto State must be getting rather slim.—Madison Democrat.

What Waddy Thompson's bolt amounts to, we have already stated, and how much it afflicts us.

"Whiggery" is "slim" in Palmettodom, and always must be, until the people are better informed, more civilized, and allowed to vote without a money, or slave-owning qualification.

RICH COUNTRY—RICH TELEGRAPH—RICH JOKE.—We find in the Rochester American the following telegraph item, dated Washington, Aug. 5th, and we congratulate the "Country" on the state of its finances:

The receipts of the last fiscal year, were $40,-250.000. Customs $48,000,000. The Public Lands over $2,000,000; and other sources about $250,000. The surplus of the year will be about $450,000,000.

☞ The Defeat of the Whig Candidate for Governor in North Carolina renders Gen. Scott's prospects of carrying that reliable whig State very doubtful.—Wisconsin.

Scarcely. North Carolina elected a Loco Foco Governor two years ago on a local issue, and has probably done the same thing again. On the Presidential question the Old North State will be found, as usual, "right side up."

☞ Judge LARRABEE, who has been in our city for two days past, returned to Washington County yesterday. More than "five days" have elapsed since he was nominated, but he has not yet "resigned," as the Convention resolved that he should do. "A bird in the hand," &c.

City Matters.

PHILIP'S LIQUID GLUE.—This article, which G. W. MYGATT, as agent, advertises in our columns, is said to be quite effectual for the purpose intended. Done up in bottles, and requiring no heating, it is doubtless quite equal to any cement of late recommended for holding the Union together and in addition to its other uses, we recommend it for that purpose.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN AS IT IS."—This long heralded salve for the hearts wounded by Mrs Stowe's popular book, has just been issued by Geo. H. Derby & Co. of Buffalo, and the publishers have favored us with a copy. We shall notice it further in a day or two.

SOUTHERN WISCONSIN R. R.—The Eastern section of this road, has, we are informed, been put under contract from Milton, where it intersects the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R., to Janesville.

W. P. FLANDERS, Esq., is the contractor, and is to finish the section to Janesville this fall.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—The Brothers INBUSCH have purchased the vacant lot on East Water St. below Detroit, 25 feet by 190, for $2250. They will put up immediately a handsome and capacious four story brick store, which the Wisconsin Leather Company talk of occupying.

CRICKET.—The Milwaukee Cricket Club meet for practice at their grounds on Spring St. Hill this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Members are requested to be punctual in their attendance.

☞ The BAKERS had a full house at Gardiner's Hall last evening, and their singing gave very great satisfaction.

IOWA ELECTION.—The Galena Gazette, received last evening, confirms the good tidings of a Whig triumph in Iowa. It is a sign in the West that the Pierce men will do well to heed.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.—We published a day or two since a call for a Mass Convention to be held at Troy, Walworth Co. on the 25 inst Below we publish another call sent to us through the Post Office, for a general Convention at Watertown on the 24th:

By the appointment of the Northern Wisconsin Temperance Convention, recently held at Fond du Lac, we are a Committee to call a mass State Convention of the friends of Temperance at Watertown, Jefferson Co., to be convened on Tuesday, 24th August inst, at 7 o'clock P. M. to consult for harmonious action in such measures as it may then be agreed to urge.

It is presumed that the "Maine Liquor Law" as a topic, will tincture the discussions of the Convention.

We pray your agency in giving the utmost publicity to this call through the papers and otherwise. We ask the kindness of publishers in circulating this call. By the Committee.

Plank Road Meeting.

A meeting of citizens of Fond du Lac was held at the Court House on Thursday last, to consider the subject of giving "material aid" in the construction of the Milwaukee, West Bend & Fond du Lac Plank Road.

B. F. Moore was appointed Chairman, and D. R. Curran Secretary.

The subject was presented to the meeting by Wm. R. Longstreet, who set forth the advantages of the road to the farming and commercial interests, to the stockholder, and to the property owner, in strong light.

His remarks were able, interesting, and to the point, showing that he possesses a thorough knowledge of the subject. For a year or two Mr. L. has devoted time and labor to the furtherance of this project, by examination of the route and by correspondence calling individual attention to its importance, and securing the co-operation of capitalists. And we are happy to say that he is about realizing his most sanguine expectations.

Messrs. Truesdell, Darling, Moore, Drury and Walker, followed in a spirit that showed their high appreciation of the importance of the road.

Books were presented and stock taken to the amount of $6,000.

A most liberal and energetic feeling has been exhibited in the country, in the subscriptions of stock. Although comparatively limited in means, the people between this city and Waucousta have taken about $6,000, and the amount will doubtless be increased.—The total sum thus far subscribed reaches $12,260.

To Mr. Longstreet belongs the merit of raising this road in prospects, to its present standard—and that, too solely by his business talents.—Fond du Lac Journal.

☞ The Canvass in Georgia continues to grow interesting. The Whigs are rallying at all points, determind to oppose Pierce and King.—A Whig mass meeting was held at the Exchange in Savannah, a few days ago, at which nominations were made of delegates to the Scott State Convention, and able addresses were delivered by Judge Fleming, Major Bacon, and others. The meeting adjourned with three hearty cheers for Scott and Graham. A call signed by seventy-four staunch Whigs, is published in the Augusta Chronicle and Sentile, for a mass meeting of the voters of Richmond county, to be held at Augusta, to ratify the nomination of Scott and Graham, and appoint delegates to the Stott State Convention. In Bibb county a similar meeting has been held, at which an able address and resolutions were adopted in favor of the election of Scott and Graham, and delegates were appointed to the State Convention.—*Phil. WORTHY OF ALL CONFIDENCE.
DR. STORM'S CELEBRATED SCOTCH COUGH CANDY.—No medicine ever invented has gained more popularity than this, nor is there any more deserving of it. There are so few compounds worthy the high merit claimed for them, that when one which is really destined to benefit the afflicted is put forth, we are slow to believe our most intimate friends, when they praise it. But Storm's Scotch Cough Candy is sold at a price so low, it must be evident to all that if it did not sustain a good reputation, enough would not be sold to pay for advertising. Almost every person that uses this article according to direction will feel justified in recommending it to others, it needs but a small outlay of money and time to satisfy the most sceptical that it is worthy of all confidence as a remedy in diseases of the Chest and Lungs.
Price, One Dime per Roll; 3 Rolls for 25 Cents; or $1 per Doz.
A handsome engraving of the Scottish Coat of Arms, and the written signature of Hamilton Wade, (proprietor,) is on the outside wrapper of each roll or package.

☞ Hundreds of our citizens complain of debility and languor of the system, derangement of the liver and stomach, want of appetite, &c.; they are frequently the result of too close application, and a thousand other causes we cannot here name; but we would say to all so afflicted, Go as we have done—get a bottle or two of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. Jackson, and, our word for it, you will be cured. We recommend this medicine knowing from experience that it is much superior to the generality of patent medicines. We would say to our readers, purchase none unless prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.

[From the Galena Gazette, Aug. 7.]

First Gun of the Champaign!

A report comes booming over the prairies.—It is from the gallant State of Iowa! She has the honor of giving the First Gun for Scott!—We always said that the Whigs of that State were pluck, and now they prove it. Hurrah for Iowa, with a heart as big as a mountain!

LATER AND BETTER.— Mr. B. F. Johnson who left Dubuque yesterday morning, informs us that news had been received there, sufficient to warrant the belief, that Cook's majority would not fall short of one thousand! There was a prospect, also, that Veilie, Whig, in the first district, had beaten Henn. The Whigs had also carried the House of Representatives.

XXXIId CONGRESS.—First Session.

Washington, Friday, Aug. 6.

SENATE.—Mr. Adams moved the postponement of the Private Calendar till 1 o'clock. Agreed to. He then moved to take up the resolution, fixing the hour of meeting of the Senate, for the remainder of the Session, at 11 o'clock, which was agreed to.

The resolution was adopted: Yeas, 20; Nays, 11.

Mr. Brodhead reported a resolution, that the Clerk of the Committee on Claims be continued during the recess.

Mr. Felch reported back the House bill, known as the Homestead bill, with a recommendation that it do not pass. He also reported back the House bill, known as Bennett's Land Distribution bill, with a like recommendation.

Also, reported back, with a like recommendation, Walker's bill to cede public lands to the States in which they lie, to be sold to actual settlers, at the cost of transfer only.

Mr. Borland said he was in a minority of the Committee in the report against the Homestead Bill.

Mr. Seward offered a resolution calling upon the President to inform the Senate whether any proposition has been made by the King of the Sandwich Islands to us, to place the sovereignty of those Islands under the protection of the United States, and all information in the possession of the Department on the subject. Adopted.

Washington Aug. 6.

HOUSE.—Mr Ingersoll presented the resolutions of the Connecticut Legislature in support of the Compromise measures, including the Fugitive Slave Law, as a fair adjustment of the Slavery question, and moved that they be laid on the table and printed.

Mr. Cleveland asked for a division on the question. He wished to be heard on the matter, and at a suitable time would debate the question on printing the resolutions, if they were ordered to be laid on the table. He therefore moved the postponement of the question of printing until the second Monday of December; but this was cut off by the House ordering the printing at once.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill regulating the costs and fees of Clerks, Marshals, and Attorneys of the Circuit and District Courts.

Messrs. Bowie and Haven respectively pointed out defects in the bill, and debated it until the expiration of the morning hour, when the House went into committee on the General Appropriation bill.

ORACLE CASS.—Gen. Cass, in the course of a debate in the Senate on the Indian Appropriation Bill, took upon himself the grave responsibility of settling the momentous question, "Who killed Tecumseh?" and declared he is convinced beyond doubt that Col. Johnson did it. If the Senator will now generously satisfy the public mind as to "who struck Billy Patterson," he will confer a lasting benefit upon the human race. He can then devote himself to an investigation into the less intricate query, "Who murdered Gen. Cass!"

DISASTROUS FIRE.—A fire broke out between one and two o'clock, this morning, at 170 Lake street, in the wood tenement, owned by High & Magee, and occupied as a millinery establishment by Miss Patterson, and above, by her as a residence. The flames spread so rapidly that nothing was saved, not even the wearing apparel of the inmates.

By the well directed efforts of the firemen, the flames were confined to the building in which they originated, altho' considerable damage was done to the sadlery establishment of C. E. Peck, adjoining, on the one side, and the dry goods store of Francis Clark on the other.

Miss Patterson's loss is estimated between $2,000 and $3,000. We are unable to ascertain whether she is insured or not.

High & Magee had an insurance in the Northwestern of $200 on the building.

C. E. Peck's loss $300 or $400, was covered by insurance in the Ætna Insurance Company.—Chicago Journal (9th.)

☞ The REV. GEO. P. SCHETKY, Rector of St. James' Church, in this village, will not attend to his usual parochial duties for the two or three next succeeding weeks. It is well known that for the beautiful church edifice recently completed and consecrated, the town is mainly indebted to his indefatigable exertions. Within twelve months he has succeeded in collecting sufficient funds—with the help of the home donations—not only to build the church, but to furnish it with tasteful and appropriate decorations, and with all the essentials for comfort and convenience. In addition he has obtained quite a large amount of valuable books for Sunday School and Parish Libraries. But we regret to say that all this has not been accomplished without a sacrifice, and that the present necessity for his absence is occasioned by enfeebled health. Mr. SCHETKY possesses an amount of zeal entirely disproportioned to his powers of endurance, and should his health be restored by a brief respite, his future labors will of necessity be confined to more circumscribed limits.—Manitowoc Herald, Aug. 5.

GEORGIA.—We observe a call signed by seventy two names, for a Whig meeting in Floyd county, to send delegates to the Scott Convention, on the 17th of August. The old feeling of Whig and Democrat appears to be arousing more and more every day, and efforts seem to be not wanting to harmonize the action of the Whig party in order to defeat Pierce and King. The mongrel Union ticket is only supported by three papers in the whole, and they are weeklies, located at and near Governor Cobb's home. Not one of the old Whig papers has shown any favor to the ticket.—The Constitutional Union party is apparently thoroughly broken up and dispersed.—Philadelphia North American.

HAWKINS'

STAVE DRESSING

MACHINE.

PATENTED JULY 22, 1851.

THIS machine is now in successful operation at the shop of Wm. Hawkins in this city, and will dress Staves for

Packing, Flour and Whiskey BARRELS, and PIPES or HOGSHEADS, at the rate of

600 Whiskey or 800 Flour Barrel Staves

PER HOUR,

straight, winding or crooked. In fact, any stave that can be worked by hand will be dressed by this machine, either for tight or slack work, from 22 inches to 72 inches in length of any reasonable width, and to any requisite bilge, and in the most perfect manner. The stave passes through the machine a single time, is dressed by rotary cutters and is them ready for the truss hoops. The dressing of the sides and jointing of the edge of the stave is performed perfectly. The machine is made of iron, is strong and durable, and is not difficult to keep in good order for use. Six horse power is sufficient to drive the machine with all the speed necessary.

The Subscribers having purchased of Wm. Hawkins the patent right for the United States are prepared to sell rights for States, Counties, or for running single machines and to furnish and set up the machines, warranted to perform perfectly. In the great saving of expense of transportation of dressed over the rough stave, the rapidity and perfect manner which it performs its work, consists the value of this machine.

Satisfactory testimonials can be furnished if desired.

PATENT MEDICINES.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1851, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., in the clerk's Office of the District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Another Scientific Wonder!

DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S GREAT DYSPEPSIA CURER!

THE TRUE

DIGESTIVE FLUID,

OR

GASTRIC JUICE

PREPARED from Rennet, or the fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.

This is a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Debility, Curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice.

☞ Half a teaspoonful of PEPSIN, infused in water will digest or dissolve, Five Pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

PEPSIN is the chief element, or Great Digestive Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an Artificial Digestive Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The Scientific Evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree Curious and Remarkable.

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE.

Baron Liebig in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid, analogous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

Dr. Pereira, in his famous treatise on "Food and Diet," published by Fowler & Wells, New York; page 35, states the same great fact, and describes the method of preparation. There are few higher authorities than Dr. Pereira.

Dr. Combe, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the due quantity of the Gastric Juice is a prominent and all prevailing cause of Dyspepsia;" and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding everything else to fail, had recourse to the Gastric Juice, obtained from the stomachs of living animals, which proved completely successful.

Dr. Graham, author of the famous works on "Vegetable Diet," says: "It is a remarkable fact in physiology, that the stomachs of animals, macerated in water, impart to the fluid the property of dissolving various articles of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial digestion of them in no wise different from the natural digestive process."

Professor Dunglison, of the Jefferson College, Philadelphia, in his great work on Human Physiology, devotes more than fifty pages to an examination of this subject.—His experiments with Dr. Beaumont, on the Gastric Juice, obtained from the living human stomach and from animals, are well known. "In all cases," he says, "digestion occurred as perfectly in the artificial as in the natural digestions."

Dr. John W. Draper, Professor of Chemistry, in the Medical College of the University of New York, in his "Text Book of Chemistry," page 386, says, "It has been a question whether artificial digestion could be performed—but it is now universally admitted that it may be."

Dr. Carpenter's standard work on Physiology, which is in the library of every Physician, and is used as a Text-Book in all the Colleges, is full of evidence similar to the above, respecting the remarkable Digestive power of Pepsin, and the fact that it may be readily separated from the stomach of the calf or ox, and used for experiments in Artificial Digestion, or as a remedy for disease of the Stomach, and deficient secretion of Gastric Juice.

All modern works on Chemistry, Materia Medica, and Physiology, and all good Medical Dictionaries, describe the character and properties of PEPSIN, and state many interesting details respecting it.

The fact that an Artificial Digestive Fluid, or Gastric Juice, perfectly resembling the natural fluid, may be readily prepared, does not admit of question. The only wonder is, that it has not before been applied to the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia—so naturally does such a use suggest itself to the mind.

AS A DYSPEPSIA CURER,

Dr. HOUGHTON'S PEPSIN has produced the most marvelous effects, in curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits of this advertisement; but authenticated certificates have been given of more than Two Hundred Remarkable Cures, in Philadelphia, New York, and Boston alone. These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were not only rapid and wonderful but permanent.

It is a great Nervous Antidote, and particularly useful for tendency to Bilious disorder, Liver complaint, Fever and Ague, or badly treated Fever and Ague, and the evil effects of Quinine, Mercury, and other drugs upon the Digestive Organs, after a long sickness. Also, for excess in eating and the too free use of ardent spirits. It almost reconciles Health with Intemperance.

OLD STOMACH COMPLAINTS.

There is no form of Old Stomach Complaints which it does not seem to reach and remove at once. No matter how bad they may be, it gives Instant Relief! A single dose removes all the unpleasant symptoms; and it only needs to be repeated for a short time to make these good effects permanent. Purity of Blood and Vigor of Body follow at once. It is particularly excellent in case of Nausea, Vomiting, Cramps, Soreness of the pit of the stomach, distress after eating, low, cold state of the Blood, Heaviness, Lowness of Spirits, Despondency, Emaciation, Weakness, tendency to Insanity, Suicide, &c.

Dr. Houghton's PEPSIN is sold by nearly all the dealers in fine drugs and Popular Medicines, throughout the United States. It is prepared in Powder and in Fluid form—and in Prescription vials for the use of Physicians.

Private Circulars for the use Physicians, may be obtained of Dr. Houghton or his Agents, describing the whole process of preparation and giving the authorities upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As it is not a Secret Remedy no objection can be raised against its use by Physicians in respectable standing and regular practice. Price One Dollar per bottle.

☞ Observe this.—Every bottle of the genuine PEPSIN bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., sole proprietor, Philadelphia, Pa. Copywright and Trade Mark secured.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

H. H. RAYMOND'S
Spherical Disinfecting Fluid,

FOR purifying the air of sleeping and sick rooms, cabins and holds of ships, particularly for passenger ships at sea or in port, prisons, jails, crowded rooms in general, from offensive, close and infectious air of all kinds, including the infectious spheres of cholera, ship, typhus, yellow, bilious, scarlet and other fevers of our own or Southern and Western climates, in cities and towns, on land and water. Also, for disinfecting the bodies, clothes, and trunks of persons who are in or have been in the atmosphere of infectious diseases.

This fluid is healthy to breathe or take internally, and instead of filling the room with a choking, irrespirable air, as the chloride of lime and other chemical preparations in use do, it makes the whole air sweet and salubrious, and at the same time strengthens the respiration and enlivens the spirits of those present, by its balmy, fragrant and tonic influence.

THE TRIBUNE.
SCOTT Leads the Column!—Forward!
"Now, brothers, now is the hour!"

THE publishers of THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE proffer copies of their regular and full Weekly issue (eight large pages, each six columns, of Literature, Politics and News,) for the remainder of the Presidential Campaign, commencing with the 7th of August and closing with Nov. 25th, when we confidently hope to announce their triumph,—on the following terms:—

1 copy for the 15 weeks	$0 37½
6 copies, to one address	2 00
10 copies do do	3 00
25 copies do do	7 50

Payment in all cases to accompany the order.

The selection of WINFIELD SCOTT for President and WILLIAM A. GRAHAM for Vice-President, has gratified our ardent wishes and strengthened our earnest hopes. Our conviction has long been fixed that Gen. Scott is the very man fitted and marked out by his heroic achievements—his inestimable services, at critical periods, in preserving our National tranquillity and preventing the effusion of blood—by his unquestioned integrity, his self devoting patriotism, his unsectional position and his humanity—to unite the Whig Masses in one enthusiastic, invincible host and lead them on to victory. So believing, we have labored and hoped for his nomination, and we now confidently look to the result to justify our sanguine anticipations.

THE TRIBUNE, standing on its own Platform and knowing no other authority but truth, will do its utmost for the election of SCOTT and GRAHAM; but it will not be absorbed by Political discussion. We have chosen to proffer Campaign subscribers a large sheet, rather than a small and cheaper one, because the postage is the same, and because we wish to extend the knowledge of what THE TRIBUNE habitually is. The letters of our Associate, BAYARD TAYLOR, who next writes us from Syria, the ruins of Nineveh, Constantinople, &c., will appear every week, with reviews of new Books, Proceedings of Congress and the general Foreign and Domestic News of the day. If there is another journal in America more valuable or interesting than THE TRIBUNE, it is not because more money or labor is spent thereon.

All the Editions of THE TRIBUNE are printed in large Quarto form, on a sheet 31 by 42 inches, showing eight large and compact pages of reading matter. About half the Daily is devoted to Advertisements, very few of which appear in our other issues. No ten dollar daily in the world contains more reading matter than THE TRIBUNE, which is afforded at $5 per annum, or $1½ for three months.

SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE:
One copy (per annum) $3; Two do. $5; Ten do. $20.
WEEKLY TRIBUNE:
One copy (per annum) $2; Three do. $5; 8 do. $10; Twenty do. (to one address) $20.

 Payment is in all cases required in advance.

Subscriptions for THE CAMPAIGN TRIBUNE, or either of our regular issues, are respectfully solicited. All notes of specie paying banks taken at par and may be remitted at our risk. Please address

PLANESPHERICAL MACHINE,
FOR CRUSHING, GRINDING, AND PULVERISING.

COCHRAN'S PLANESPHERICAL QUARTZ CRUSHING AND PULVERIZING MACHINES, of various sizes, from 2 to 10 feet in diameter, and weighing from 500 lbs. to 10 tons each, are now in daily operation for the inspection of the public, and will be submitted to any reasonable practical tests proposed by parties interested.

These machines, by their simplicity of construction, their durability, the undoubted principles upon which they operate, their effective operation and result, are justly entitled to the consideration of all parties engaged in grinding, crushing, and pulverising, Quartz, Zinc Ore, and all other ores, or mineral substances.

It is the peculiar feature of the economy of these machines that they are found capable of crushing and pulverising into the finest powder any amount of Quartz or other earthy matter, in proportion to the amount of weight or power applied. The earthy matter is so completely ground and pulverized, that the Gold may be easily separated, and subjected to any process of amalgamation that may be necessary.

The machines work and deliver wet or dry, as may be required, and run with little friction (being almost without machinery), requiring no lubricating; the principle upon which they operate precludes the possibility of their being put out of order; nor do they heat any material while being pulverised. They are at once applicable for all purposes of grinding and pulverising, from those required by the DRUGGIST to those of the most extensive operations in CALIFORNIA and AUSTRALIA.

The proprietors of this invention solicit examination, and will prove by practical tests the vast superiority and economy of these machines over any other, for crushing, grinding or pulverising, heretofore offered to the public.

These machines may be seen in operation at foot of South Eighth street, Williamsburgh; at the large Patent Block and Saw Factory of Messrs Burr, Waterman & Co., First street, south of Peck Slip Ferry, every day, from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 4 to 6 P. M. For further particulars apply to

THE WORLD'S FAIR PREMIUM SAFES.
DEPOT,
Green Block, Water St.,
(Between Maiden Lane and Wall Street,)
NEW YORK.

THE SUBSCRIBER PLACED HIS FIRE AND BURGLAR-Proof Iron Safe in competition with the whole world at the great Exhibition in London, for which an impartial jury awarded a medal.

The American Fair, held last fall at Castle Garden, also awarded to him a gold medal for the best Fire-Proof Safe, and he has never failed to obtain the highest premium when his Safe has been put in competition with others for that purpose. Certificates have been received from the following well-known mercantile houses, who have had their books, papers and money preserved in these superior Safes within the last thirty days, (and can, with many others, be seen at my store,) viz: Messrs. Stillwell & Montross, and Mr. J. L. Watkins, in the Fulton Street fire; Messrs. Fisher & Robinson, and Messrs. John Lockwood & Co., in the great fire corner of Liberty and Nassau Streets, and Messrs. Frond & Bowman, in Jersey City.

I am the proprietor of HALL'S PATENT LOCK, which obtained a medal (in the name of Adams & Co., Boston,) at the World's Exhibition, and is considered the best Lock for the price, ever invented, being proof against powder, and the Key is no larger than a cent, and can be made changeable.

I invite all purchasers to a close and careful investigation before purchasing, and decide for themselves, who makes the best Fire, Burglar and Damp-Proof Safes combined.

GRIST MILLS.

THE subscribers, thankful for past favors, beg leave to announce that they have recently added the Foundry business to their former occupation of Mill wright manufacturing, and are now prepared to supply the public with articles in either branch on terms that will be accommodating.

In offering our stoves to the community, we do so with the full assurance that we can supply better articles than can be purchased at any other place, being entirely new patterns, manufactured with care and from the very best material. The following list of patterns is offered with the confidence that they will give satisfaction in every particular, viz:

THE ECONOMIST
DOUBLE OVEN COOKING STOVE,
(Which received the First Premium at the State Fair, lately held at Janesville.)

Possesses great advantages over every other stove, for plain [illegible] direct application of heat, being so arranged that one or both ovens can be used as pleasure. It will cook in half the time of any other stove [illegible] in use, and with half the fuel, not consuming over four cords of wood in one year.

The TRIUMPH single oven, taking in long wood, is an excellent stove—one that has been well tested, and given general satisfaction.

The PREMIUM is different in its construction from any other made, in the arrangement of the fire and [illegible] acknowledged to be a great improvement.

The JUNO PARLOR is adapted to either wood or coal, it is decidedly the neatest arrangement ever offered to the public, having all the conveniences of the [illegible] combined with the beauties of the open grate. It is exceedingly ornamental, highly finished, and perfect in every respect—the entire front above and below the grate being opened or closed with three doors, and so arranged that the [illegible] they are completely out of sight. It is equally adapted to offices as well as parlors.

The RADIATOR is the best coal stove ever got up as a radiator of heat.

Persons purchasing their stoves of us, in the event of any of the plates getting broke, can at all times be supplied with extra ones, thus superseding the necessity of throwing away stoves, which many are daily compelled to do, in buying Eastern ware.

Those who are in want of an article in our line, will find it to their advantage to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere, as we are confident that we can give satisfaction in all cases. City references given, where our stoves can be seen in operation. Stoves delivered and set up in any part of the city, free of charge. All orders promptly attended to.

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC!
THE following advertisement was published in May, 1849, in the "Boston Daily Times," and various other newspapers in the United States, by James G. Wilson, Esq., the owner of the "Woodworth Patent," shortly after I had advertised my "PATENT STATIONARY CUTTER, PLANING, TONGUING, AND GROOVING MACHINE," throughout the United States:

"PLANING MACHINES.

"I take this method of answering the frequent inquiries by letter and otherwise, as to my opinion upon the various notices through the papers, of the Stationary Knife Planing Machines attempted to be palmed off upon several persons ignorant of their true worth. I would state for the information of the enquirers that they will find substantially the machine now offered by several pretending inventors, described in the 10th volume of the Repertory of Arts, invented by Samuel Bentham, in the year 1791. A like machine was patented in this country by one Kuder, some six twenty years since, and another one put up by Albert Richmond, of West Troy, N. Y., and abandoned about the same time. It ought to satisfy the public to know that after fifty or sixty years experimenting upon these machines not one is in use in any part of the world.

I will furnish a Stationary Knife Machine equal to any now in use, or to any offered by the pretending inventors, at the cost of the machine and five per cent for my trouble.
JAMES G. WILSON,
May 18, 1849. Philadelphia."

I deny that any person ever saw or heard of such a machine as mine until I invented the same. Said machine was operated in the month of August, 1848, and no machine before this could do so much work, and do it as well as mine. In reply to the above advertisement, and in order that the public may be assured that I mean what I say, I will offer to pledge ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS against an equal amount from said Wilson, that ONE of my machines will plane, or plane, tongue and groove with less power, as much lumber in the same time, and do it as well or better than TWO of the "Woodworth" machines. The trial to be made at my Steam Mill, Border St., East Boston, Mass., or at such other place as may be convenient for such a trial.

NO. 1.
R. R. R.
RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,
Is the first and only remedy ever recorded in the Medical History of the World that has stopped the most violent pains in a few seconds.
IT WILL STOP
THE MOST SEVERE PAINS
IN A FEW MINUTES, AND CURE THE MOST OBSTINATE AND TORMENTING RHEUMATIC, NEURALGIC AND NERVOUS COMPLAINTS
IN A FEW HOURS,
INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL.
IT WILL STOP
THE MOST EXCRUCIATING PAINS,
IN FROM THREE TO FIVE MINUTES!
AND HAS CURED

Rheumatism	In Four Hours.
Neuralgia	In One Hour.
Croup	In Ten Minutes.
Diarrhœa	In Fifteen Minutes.
Toothache	In One Second.
Spasm	In Five Minutes.
Cramps	In Five Minutes.
Sick Head Ache	In Fifteen Minutes.
Chill Fever	In Fifteen Minutes.
Chilblains	In Five Minutes.
Sore Throat	In Four Hours.
Influenza	In One Hour.

SPINAL COMPLAINTS, STIFF JOINTS, STRAINS, BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, FROST BITES, CHOLERA MORBUS, DYSENTERY, TIC DOLOREUX, and all other complaints where there is severe pains, RADWAY'S READY RELIEF will instantly stop pain, and quickly cure the disease.

THE HUMAN FRAME

Is the most perfect masterpiece of mechanism in the universe. Every artery, muscle, ligament and bone, exhibits in its formation the wisdom of the Deity. Every joint and sinew works harmoniously with each other, and upon the natural performance of every function depends the healthful action of the whole.

PAIN

Disorganizes the whole system, it prostrates the nerves, it relaxes the muscles, it weakens the joints, it interferes with the functions of every organ, it checks the free and healthy circulation of the blood, it paralizes the absorbents, and renders them unable to take up and replete the wasted form with sound material. From the very moment that this beautiful masterpiece of God becomes afflicted with pain, the influence is experienced throughout the whole system, no matter in what particular locality the pain may originate; whether in the Head, the Feet, the Back, the Knee Joints, the Elbows, the Teeth, the Gums, or the Stomach; whether it arises from internal derangement, or is the result of external injuries, still the pain exercises its influence throughout every portion of the human system.—Not a nerve or a muscle escapes its prostrating influence.

INSTANT RELIEF FROM PAIN

Is the great desideratum of every individual who suffers its tortures, no matter how light or severe its paroxysms may be. No one can feel happy while suffering its torments.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF
In a few seconds
WILL STOP THE MOST DISTRESSING PAINS.

Its effects are like electricity; it arrests the most distressing pangs in a few seconds, its soothing, neutralizing and healthful influences thrill through every minute cell, membrane, and establishes the secretion of every gland in the system, subduing the most excruciating paroxysm of pain, and imparting strength and vitality to every organ.

NEURALGIA.
PAIN STOPPED INSTANTLY.

Radway's Ready Relief possesses an almost miraculous influence over the sharp darting pangs of pain of this cruel complaint. In a few minutes the pain-stricken sufferer experiences the delightful sensations of departing pain. It has cured thousands of cases in the city of New York, where many of them had been brought almost to death's door. The effects of the Ready Relief is to stop the pain immediately, to strengthen the nervous system, and supply the nerves with nervous energy and vitality, the loss of which is the chief cause of nervous pains.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE.

The use of Morphine, Strychnine, Aconitine, Belladonna, Arnica, and other poisons are not only dangerous but cruel. The effect of these poisons is not to cure the disease, or to remove from the system the pains, but to deaden the nerves, to weaken and stop the nervous energy, to paralyze the functions of the nervous system, and to destroy sensation. If this practice is continued for any length of time, the patient will not only waste away, but the brain will become paralyzed, and the intellect destroyed.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF
IS FREE FROM MORPHINE,

And all other dangerous and narcotic influence. To the weak and paralyzed nervous system it imparts life instead of death, and the pain is stopped by the healthy influence which Radway's Ready Relief imparts to the nerves, instead of the lifeless, sleepy and paralyzing effect which Morphine, and all other preparations containing this poison, produce on the system.

SICK HEADACHE.

Radway's Ready Relief will stop the most distressing pains in a few minutes, and prevent renewed attacks. It will cleanse and sweeten the stomach, and neutralize the poisonous acids of the system.

ALL BOWEL COMPLAINTS,
Diarrhœa, Dysentery,
Bloody Flux, Cholera Morbus,
Painful Discharges,

It relieves the most severe pains in a few minutes—checks the most distressing discharges, and

SPEEDILY REMOVES THE CAUSE.
RHEUMATISM.
PAINS RELIEVED IN FIVE MINUTES.

Radway's Ready Relief will stop the severe and excruciating pains of Rheumatism almost instantly. Persons are living in this city who, for months, were confined to their beds by Rheumatic pains, whose bones were unsound from top to toe, whose joints were distorted with painful swellings, that were relieved from all pain in 15 minutes by the use of Radway's Ready Relief. This is truth, and thousands in the city of New York, and hundreds of thousands in the United States, can answer for the truth of this assertion—we need no certificates of Cures—we publish no long list of names to prove the efficacy of Radway's Ready Relief, for the Citizens of almost every town in the Union, for the last four years, have tested it for themselves.

CHILL FEVER.
CHILLS STOPPED IN A FEW MINUTES—PAIN RELIEVED INSTANTLY.

Radway's Ready Relief acts like a charm in all cases of Chills and Fever. It breaks the chills immediately—warms up and invigorates with health and strength every organ and secretion of the system.

PAINS OF ALL KINDS.

Whenever you feel pain, apply Radway's Ready Relief—it is sure to relieve you in a few minutes. If you have pains in the Stomach, Intestines, in the Liver, Kidney's, Bowels, Joints, Bones, Radway's Ready Relief, taken either internally or applied externally, will in a few minutes stop pain and quickly remove its cause.

BEAUTY.

Complexion richly tinted with the bloom of health,
With skin as pure and fair as Parian marble,—
Soft and sweet as the fragrant rose—
Teeth as sound and white as alabaster,
Breath of sweetest fragrance, and lips of coral tint,
With flowing ringlets and glossy locks,
Luxuriant tresses dancing gracefully o'er the swan like neck
No dark repulsive spots to mar the pleasing picture,
Or to cast dull shadows o'er beauty's master piece.

RADWAYS MEDICATED SOAP.

Composed of the most delicious, rare and fragrant gums,
Of extracts, oils, and costly essences—
Of flowers, roots, trees, and oriental plants,
Possessing wondrous virtues o'er skin diseases.

TO THE COMPLEXION IT IMPARTS BEAUTY.

By cleansing the skin from all eruptive matter,
Makes clean the pores, gives action to the capillaries,
By which all poisonous humors are ejected,—
And a healthy action to the skin restored,
To the teeth it gives whiteness and prevents decay,
It makes the skin soft, sweet and smooth,
Transforms the most repulsive and disfigured visage,—
To a clear and beautiful complexion.

RADWAY'S CIRCASSIAN BALM.

Imparts nutriment to the hair,—
Makes it strong, glossy, rich and luxuriant,
Cleanses the scalp from dandruff;—gives action to the bulbs,
Fastens the hair upon the scalp, and forces it to grow—
Like guano to a barren soil, it makes it rich and productive.—
To dress the hair, make it smooth and glossy,—
Strong and beautiful, &c.

Radway's Circassian Balm is the "ne plus ultra."

We would respectfully call the attention of our many friends, and the public generally, to an instrument we have recently imported from Paris, called a from which the above cut was taken. By it we can take the exact shape, and unerringly fit the most irregular heads. Many can testify to the inconvenience, and annoyance, and actual pain they are subjected to, in breaking in Hats that will not fit them. By this ingenious contrivance, this very great annoyance is done away; as the Hats are made to fit perfectly the first time.

"Conformateur,"

Another great advantage is, by keeping a copy of the impression, we can at all times fit our customers from all parts of the country.

We invite all who desire a perfect fit in a Hat, to call and leave an impression of their head; and all those who take pleasure in witnessing the inventions of the ingenious, to call and see the operations of this curious instrument.

Having adopted the CASH SYSTEM (which all will readily acknowledge to be the best,) we are enabled to sell the best Silk Hat made, at the extreme low price of $4.25; surpassing any $5 Hat sold in this city. Our Hats are all manufactured by ourselves, and in offering them to our customers, we do so, with the confident assurance they are all we recommend them to be. We invite all who do not wish to pay two profits upon a Hat, and are willing to save 25 per cent, to call and see us.

[From the Boston Bee.]

The Editor said, Dec. 31: "Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters, for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor, a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. SCOTT'S WEEKLY,

One of the best literary papers published, said, August 25

"Dr. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, manufactured by Dr Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty, as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitution will find these Bitters advantageous to health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

The Daily Sun says:—"It is one of the best medicines of the age for Jaundice and Liver Complaint."

Neal's Gazette says:—"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters we know to be an excellent article, fulfilling in every respect what is claimed for it by the advertiser."

The Evening Bulletin says:—"The celebrated German Bitters are said to be an invaluable remedy for Jaundice, Dyspepsia, and Nervous Complaints."

The Daily News, July 24, says:—"A Medicine.—We speak knowingly of Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters, when we say it is a blessing of this age, and in diseases of the biliary, digestive and nervous systems, it has not, we think, an equal. It is a vegetable preparation, and made without alcohol, and to all invalids we should recommend it as worthy of their confidence."

The Dispatch says:—"As a medicine for Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Nervous Debility, and Dyspepsia, it has been found invaluable, effecting cures, and thoroughly eradicating disease, when all other medicines have failed."

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt, after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver—it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to Females or Infants with safety and reliable benefit, at any time.

LOOK WELL TO THE MARKS OF THE GENUINE.

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and the name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

A Word of Caution to the Public!

Dealers in Pain Killer are cautioned against buying or selling a spurious article of Pain Killer, manufactured by Whitin & Co., of Buffalo, which is a worthless imitation and the pamphlets a "BASE FORGERY" which will appear by comparing them with the Genuine. "The certificates are copied verbatim." The proprietor of the Genuine Perry Davis' Pain Killer will prosecute any person, engaged in selling this spurious article, and is determined to protect himself and the public from this "infamous fraud." Many unprincipled persons, to deceive the public, and for the sake of gain, have applied the name Pain Killer, or something similar to their own compounds such as Pain Destroyer, Pain Killing Compound, a real Pain Killer, &c. &c., all of which have been got up on the reputation of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.
